Berger's home run drive yesterday afternoon was appreciated by the fans, who cheered lustily, but deeper appreciation was shown by Secretary Bradey, who wrote Berger'a note after the game, congratulating him and enclosing a banknote.

Speaking of umpires, it appears that the official bouncer of the umpires of the Virginia League resides in Ronnoke, for during last season and this season six umps have received their discharge in the Magic City. Last year Cross, Colgate and Kennedy were dumped there, and so far this season, McTee. Tone and Keliy have received their walking papers while in Roanoke.

Spalding's Official Athlette Rules an Spalding's Official Athletic Rules and official Handbook of the Amateur thickie Union of the United States, ontaining the revised rules of the A. A. U. to date, including those for track and field sports, gymnastics, swimming, diving, boxing, wrestling, water ollo, tug-of-war, steeplechasing, relay acing, throwing the javelin, etc., is low in the hands of the booksellers. The book gives much other information of value to those in charge of mateur sports. It is published by he American Sports Publishing Company, of 21 Warren Street, New York Hig.

Players being sold by the Virginia League clubs are bringing good prices. Tiny Graham, the Tigers first baseman, sold to the Cincinnati Reds, brought around $2,000, while Glockson, the Shipbuilders' catcher, will cause $2,500 to rest in the treasury of the Newport News Club when he goes to another field at the close of the season. Other sales will be made within the next few weeks, and before the season is closed the major leagues will have gathered from the Virginia League some of the fastest young players available in organized baseball realms.

John Raley, the Colts' first baseman, is rapidly recovering from a broken arm received while in play several weeks ago. It is doubtful, however, weeks ago. It is doubtful, however, if Raies will participate in many games during the remaindes of the season, and his absence from the game will be regretted by many admirers.

Young Keefe is pulling off some exposed for the control of the season and many admirers.

Clarence Berger has regained it confidence which enabled him to sw the ball carlier in the senson, and is now going good in both fielding as battling. No secret is betrayed when is stated that Berger is being look upon with favor by several seous, a while several offers have been ma for him, his value in dollars and cer has not yet been properly gauged those making the profilers.

Unofficially, and just outside of the room in which the Virginia League inagration met at the Richmond Hotel on Thursday, "Who fired Kelly" was ine question raised among the magnitudes. Owney C. H. Elliott, of the Roamok Clind, denied having anything against k-lly and said he had nothing against k-lly and said he had nothing against statements were made by other directors and owners as they questioned each other, and the matter finally resolved itself into the plain fact statement that the Virginia League lost an umpire who was honest and fair whe h. Players acting as umpires is a very unsatisfactory condition. With the teams in the first division fighting for the flag for the first season, and all of the teams ecting in shirp-shape for the battle for the flag of the second division, there should be action taken to have the best qualified umpires at each gain. The use of players as umpires is not satisfactory to players or fans, and it belittles the standing of the lengths in the eyes of the base-ball worth.

Manager Ryan and his bristling Coits depart to morrow morning for the city by the sea. After three games there with the leaders in the race the Coits will jump to the Magic City, where they will play the Tigers for a series of three games. Then they jump back to Portsmouth for three games, returning home on July 16 to meet Roanoke.

Sporting Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

"A" and "B" playing in a baseball pool, counting the greatest number of runs. In case of a double-header the first game counts. Player "A" has the New York Glants, and they make eight runs. Player "B" has the Philadelphia Americans. The game is forfeited to Philadelphia by the score of 5 to 0. Is player "B" entitled to the nine runs or not?

PIRATES TWICE DEFEATED

Pittsburgh, July 4.—The Cubs stung the Pirates twice to-day, 1 to 0 and 4 to 2. Vaughn's pitching and his timely two-bagger in the fifth won the morning affair, and in the afternoon Cheney tackled seventeen Pirates and licked the entire company. The Cubs knock-ed Cooper for one run in the first inning and three in the third. With the bases full in the sixth, Kelly sent in two runs with a single. Scores:

WHITE SOX WIN BOTH

Chicago, July 4.—The White Sox won both games from St. Louis to-day, 4 to 3 and 9 to 9. The morning game was a nip-and-tuck affair, the Browns tying the count in their half of the fifth. In the Sox half Berger got a base on balls, an infield out, and Demmitt's hit scored him with the winning run. Cleotte allowed six scattered hits in the afterneon game and never was in trouble. The Sox scored six runs in the eighth. Singles by Demmittt, Collins, Fournier, a triple by Schalk and an error by Williams, figured in the rally. Scores:

ATHLETICS AND YANKS SPLIT

Philadelphia, July 4.—After losing the morning game to the Yanks, 7 to 5, the Athletics took the afternoon contest, 6 to 2. Both Wyckoff and Plank were wild in the opener. A rally in the eighth netted the Yanks four runs and the game. Wyckoff walked Hartzell, and pitched two balls to Peckinpaugh, when Plank was sent in. He passed Peckinpaugh and four singles followed. The Athletics found MeHale easy in the second, and were aided by loose fielding on the part of the Yanks. Pounding McHale hard in the fourth, combined with an error, netted four runs. Score:

NAPS AND TIGERS SPLIT BILL

Detroit, Mich., July 4.—Cleveland and Detroit divided to-day's game, the Naps taking the morning game, 10 to 8, and Detroit the afternoon, 3 to 2. The morning game was one of the worst played affairs seen here this scason. Most of the runs on both sides came as the result of errors. Dubuc and Hall were both hard hit and Gregg was knocked out after his team had given him a six-run clad. Twelve innings were necessary in the afternoon game. Both Steen and Main did great work. Every run made was the result of an orror. In the twelfth a safe bunt by Kavanaugh, a single by Burns, and O'Nell's wild throw, scored the winning tally. Scores:

The great American handicap went to Lady Barbary, who closed in pretty style in the final eighth. The Mas-querader and Lampoon were early pace-makers. Cataline was slow in Matty McCue Senreely Lifted a Glove in His Own Defense and Was Dropped in the Second.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 4.—A dull thud and the streak of a new spongo flying through the air—that's all.

Jose Rivers scored a knockout over Matty McCue, substitute for Wolgast, in the second round of a scheduled twenty-round battle in the Vernon ting of the Pacific Athletic Club.

To use the expression of a ringleader, "McCue wasn't a handful for Rivers, In condition to fight a champlon Rivers wasted no time in useless stalling, but dropped McCue once in the first round, twice in the second and called it a day's work.

McCue, looking so small and shriveled up that he might have passed for a featherweight, scarcely lifted a glove in his own defense.

Rivers was laughing before the bout was thirty seconds old. It was the easiest game the Callifornian had ever been handed, and he doubted his own teeps.

SUBSTITUTE FOR WOLGAST

EASILY BEAT BY RIVERS

A left to the jaw dropped McCue in the first round. He was up without walting for a count and covered up while taking the rest of his medicine in this round.

It livers drove over a left to the chin, knocking McCue down in the second. Matty took the count of six. Another left nailed the Racine lad on the jaw and he tumbled for the dull thud mentioned in the opening paragraph of this story. Without waiting for his boy to get up for a finishing punch Tom Jones sailed a sponge into the ring, and Referee Eyton awarded the decision to the Mexican.

Clabby Defeats McGoorty.

Sidney, July 4.—Jimmy Clabby won the world's middleweight championship to-night from Eddle McGoorty, of Oshkosh, Wis, on a foul in the eighth round of their scheduled twenty-round bout. Up to the finish the contest had been a thriller, with the Wisconship man evidently having the worst of it. McGoorty gained his high standing among the middleweights by his defeat of Dave Smith here, and of both Jeff Smith and Battling Levinsky, in New York.

Clabby is already booked for two other bouts in Australia.

Morris Wins From Kubiak.
Fort Smith, Ark., July 4.—Carl Morris, of Apulpa, Okla., stopped Al Kubiak, of Michigan, in the sixth round of their scheduled ten-round bout here to-day.

Chip Wins in Fifteenth.

San Francisco, July 4.—George Chip, of Newcastle, Pa., knocked out Fighting Billy Murray, of Petaluma, Cal., in the fifteenth round here to-day. If was all Murray until the elevonth round, when Chip planted a hard lett on Murray's stomach. After that the tide began to run increasingly toward the Easterner.

GATE CITY WON GAME

Gate City, Va., July 4.—A great crowd attended the celebration here to-day, and a good program was rendered. Yesterday Gate City defeated the Rye Cove ball team 12 to 1. To-day Gate City, in a hard-fought game, defeated the team of the Bristol Door and Lumber Company by a score of 9 to 7.
